Members Make the Credit Union Succeed

It is because of members like you, yes YOU, that Indiana State University Federal Credit Union can exist. Credit unions were founded on the philosophy of "People Helping People," and the staff at ISU Credit Union is happy to live out that philosophy every day.

Did you realize that as a credit union member, you're also part owner? Our members share in equal ownership and have a say in our organization. It doesn't matter if you have $25 in your account or $250,000. Our members are all equal at ISU Credit Union.

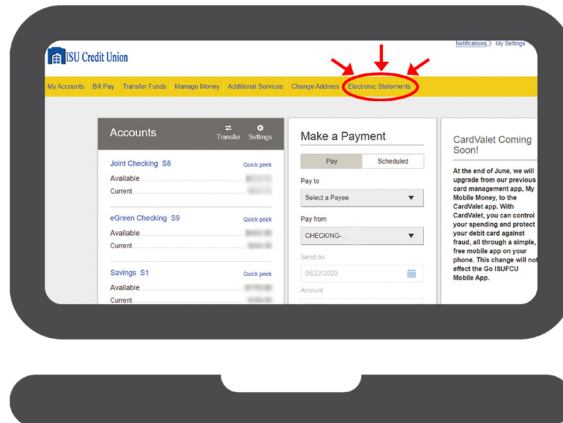

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer and an Equal Housing Lender. We exist for YOU!

Two Board Members to Retire

Jeff Schrink and Dale Varble are set to retire from the ISU Credit Union Board of Directors in 2020. Jeff was a faculty member at ISU from 1973-2006 and became a volunteer for the credit union in 1979. Dale was a faculty member at ISU from 1980-2019 and has been a volunteer on our Board of Directors since 1985. We thank them for their dedication to the credit union over the years and wish them the best!
